A vintage race

George Wingard, of Eugene, Ore., "zooms" around raceway in Laguna Seca, Calif., in his 1911 Fiat during 12th annual Monterey Historical Automobile Races. The Fiat, one of Europe's first contributions to the "horseless carriage" craze, is the oldest car entered among the 300 vintage autos from the United States, Canada and Mexico. The races end Sunday.

Jackson cites 'unfair' treatment in campaign

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Rev. Jesse Jackson told Democratic Party leaders Saturday that supporters of his 1984 presidential primary campaign were treated unfairly because their votes didn't always translate into convention delegates.

Jesse Jackson told members of the Democratic National Committee's Fairness Commission.

"However, many of these people felt as though their votes did not count, and in many ways they were right," he said.
